

DRESS CODE MENS

FOR GOLF APPROPRIATE

HEADWEAR

Caps must be worn the right way round, i.e. with the peak pointing forwards. Any other standard golfing headwear is acceptable.

SHIRTS

Golf shirts must have collars or polo necks and sleeves. Shirts should be worn tucked into trousers. Sleeveless shirts - even from well-known golfwear brands - and t-shirts of any kind are not permitted.

TROUSERS

Blue denim jeans are not permitted. Denim trousers in other colours apart from blue must comply with the dress code. Bermudas and other shorts should be knee-length.

FOOTWEAR

Only golf shoes with soft spikes or dimpled soles are permitted.

FOR GOLF NOT APPROPRIATE

APPLICABILITY

This dress code applies to all players, their caddies and friends and family on the course. Anyone who is not appropriately dressed will be refused admission to the courses. The dress code also applies in the Golf Academy, the driving range and all practice facilities.

THE DRESS CODE IS MONITORED AND IMPLEMENTED AT ALL TIMES.

The St. Leon-Rot Golf Club staff are obliged to ask anyone not following the dress code to leave the course. To avoid embarrassment, please therefore make sure you follow the dress code.
